If your account has not received a contribution or rollover in the last 16 continuous months, we cannot reinstate your cover without an election. We have included an election in this reinstatement form.

2 Reinstatement of insurance cover and election to keep your insurance cover

A Reinstatement of insurance

I instruct the trustee to reinstate the insurance cover that I held in my account.

I understand that:

- 'reinstatement' of insurance cover means that my insurance cover will be treated as if it had never been cancelled
- my insurance cover will be reinstated, as long as:
  - the trustee receives this form within 90 days of my cover being cancelled
  - there is enough money in my account to pay the premiums since the date my insurance cover was cancelled
- if my cover is reinstated:
  - premiums will be deducted from my account to pay for insurance cover (which will be backdated to the date that my cover was cancelled)
  - I will be eligible to claim for any insured event that has occurred since the date my cover was cancelled, subject to the terms of the insurance policy

B Election to keep insurance on an inactive superannuation account

I elect to keep the insurance cover in my superannuation account even if no contribution or rollover is received in my account for a continuous period of 16 months or more.

I understand that:

- this election will continue until my account is closed
- this election applies to the insurance cover that I currently hold in my superannuation account, and any other types of insurance cover that I may hold in my superannuation account in the future, including death cover, total and permanent disablement cover, and salary continuance insurance cover
- my amount of cover, and the cost of my cover, may change in accordance with the insurance policy terms
- I can cancel or reduce my cover at any time
- my cover may end in circumstances set out in the Product Disclosure Statement (for example, if there are insufficient funds in my account to pay for my insurance premiums)
- by keeping the insurance cover, future premiums will continue to be deducted from my account and may reduce my super.

Note: If a contribution or rollover has been received in your account after your insurance was cancelled, your cover can be reinstated without you making an election that you wish to keep cover in your account even if no contribution or rollover is received in your account for a continuous period of 16 months or more. Please call us on 13 4074 if you want to reinstate your cover without making an election.
